NINE GAMES ON V. M. I. FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Johns Hopkins Will Be Played on Thanksgiving. Most Important Contest Is That Against University of Virginia on October 19.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lexington, Va., February 18.—Coach Alpha Brumage, director of athletics at the Virginia Military Institute, has made public the football schedule for the coming season. All of the games have been arranged with the exception of the one to take place on November 16. Negotiations are now under way with several strong teams for this date.

During the coming season nine games will be played. The first contest is with Hampden-Sidney on the local gridiron, followed by the University College of Medicine, of Richmond, and Gallaudet, on October 5 and 12, respectively. The University of Virginia will be met on Lambeau Field, October 19, when the most important game of the season will be played. Special interest will be added to this contest by the fact that the entire corps will, in all probability, accompany the squad to Charlottesville. Then follow Western Maryland College, at Lexington, and Kentucky University, at Lexington, Ky. The usual game will be played with the plucky St. John's team, of Annapolis, Md., the Thanksgiving game is with Johns Hopkins in Baltimore. According to an order of the board of visitors of the institute, the corps is allowed one trip a year with the team. Heretofore this trip has usually been taken on the Thanksgiving. This year, however, owing to the fact that Baltimore is so far, the corps will not attend the Thanksgiving game, witnessing instead the contest at Lexington.

SEE DURBAR FOR WESTERN CLUBS FIGHT FOR LIFE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, February 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Bryan, of Richmond, last night left for San Francisco, en route to-night by the Cunarder Carmania, with a diary full of experiences. Mr. Bryan told how he attended the Durbar at Delhi, getting a seat with his wife on the gold and purple carpet 100 feet square within about 100 feet of the throne for the "more cost of a telegram." They were in Calcutta when they were inspired by the general discussion of the Durbar to make an effort to go to it. They learned that practically all the houses and tents had been hired twenty days before, and that the prices were enormous. Then Mr. Bryan remembered his letter of credentials, signed by President Taft, and decided to utilize it in getting a look at the Durbar. He naturally expected to pay for everything he got. He sent the telegram to the secretary of the Durbar, saying that he had a letter from President Taft showing that he was a good American traveling around the world. He was surprised to learn that the secretary had sent a special train for him and his wife to Calcutta, and they were thus conveyed to Delhi.

They were met by a representative of the secretary, who informed that they would be expected to appear in "court dress." All that Mr. and Mrs. Bryan had were Yankee clothes, and they decided to risk going in them. They had a special tent and were seated on the gold and purple carpet, so that they heard every word of the King's speech from the throne. Another special train took them back to Calcutta, after they had been introduced to everybody of note who took part in the Durbar. And all this, Mr. Bryan declared, cost him not a cent more than the cost of his telegram.

Before going to the Durbar, and while Mr. and Mrs. Bryan were on the way in the compartment of a train from Calcutta to Darjeeling, a robber boarded and went into the Bryan compartment. He was armed with a revolver and an electric light in her face. She jumped up and grappled the robber, calling on her husband for help. Mr. Bryan is big and athletic, and he knocked down the robber, who was a native East Indian, and then picked him up and hauled him through the window into the darkness.

A few nights before a woman had been murdered in the compartment of a train on the same line, and this incident had been reported in the Times-Dispatch.

BECK PUTS CRIMP IN REPUBLICANS

Judge Waddill had filed a memorandum calling attention to friction which was said to exist between the various branches of the government service. Recent developments have been viewed with complacency by Democratic leaders who see in this abnormal amount of bitterness little change for any Republican gains in Virginia. In Richmond, for instance, there are hundreds of national Republicans, who are not willing to permit suffrage for presidential electors, but support other offices. The party breach has grown so big that it will hardly be healed; it might be healed, as somebody has already remarked, if there were enough fat jobs for every Republican in the State.

Many Contests.
The known contested delegates are as follows: Eighteen from Richmond, three from Chesterfield, three from Gloucester county and two from Hanover county. It was reported last night, but the rumor could not be confirmed, that the twelve delegates from Henrico, King William, New Kent, James City and Charles City counties and Williamsburg, also, be contested.

Apparently the contest is willing to surrender and the fight will certainly be carried up to the State Committee, with the possibility that it will be necessary for the National Committee to clear up the middle.

All of yesterday's ball-factions were hard at work. Conference were held throughout the day and night, but none of the leaders of either side was willing to discuss the probable outcome of to-day's meeting. Both were equally confident of victory, which was bolstered by the indication that the situation will again resolve itself into two meetings.

Mr. Cabell, who is regarded as the almost sole issue of the struggle, arrived in Richmond Saturday night, and is called to hand when the meeting is held to-day at noon.

Flegenheimer Won't Talk.
Mr. Flegenheimer declined to discuss the letter, published in The Times-Dispatch, which was written to him Saturday night by Mr. Moore, and in which the latter agreed to drop the fight if Mr. Flegenheimer would produce affidavits from 300 Republican voters of Richmond who would swear that they participated in the city convention which elected Mr. Flegenheimer chairman.

Mr. Flegenheimer said that he had not received the letter and his first knowledge of it was when it was published yesterday morning. Neither did he have anything to say concerning the publication of the letter, which Mr. Moore gave out and which, he said, had been written ten or twelve years ago by Mr. Flegenheimer, in which it was said that the Arnold-Allen-Moore faction was then preparing to defeat National Committeeman Alvin H. Martin and Mr. Flegenheimer, C. Eason Slomp.

Richmond Delegations.
The district delegates and alternates elected by the two city factions are as follows: Brady-Flegenheimer-Hanson—Trotter—Delegates—Joseph P. Brady, Waller W. Morton, G. A. Hanson, Joseph W. Stewart, R. L. Mahaley, Oscar Hooker, Melvin Flegenheimer, F. J. Mitchell, John H. Moore, W. D. Huse, Dr. B. A. Ford, V. D. Dones, Bernard Shaughnessy, Mark R. Lloyd, R. E. Clarke, James L. Official assurance has been given the Mayor of this place that the town will have a modern freight and passenger depot as soon as the weather allows for building operations to begin. It will be located on the vacant lot at the south end of Main Street near the Blackburg, and will be after the plan of railway stations in other college towns with ample room for handling the considerable volume of baggage, freight and express. The law as to the segregation of the races and separate waiting rooms for them will be observed and the necessary water and sanitary arrangements made.

VISITING NURSES MADE FINE RECORD

More Than 25,000 Sick Persons Attended by Volunteer Band Without Charge.

MRS. PARRISH PRESIDENT
Organization Prepared to Carry Forward Work on Greater Scale This Year.

That the astonishing total of 25,726 visits were paid by the Instructive Visiting Nurses' Association during 1911 to sick people too poor to have otherwise received skilled attention is the statement made in the annual report of Miss Nannie Minor, head nurse. The report further set forth that most tickets had been given to 1,891 patients badly in need of proper nursing, and 100 tickets issued in the dead of winter of last summer to the extent of 2,566.

This remarkable report, made at the tenth annual meeting of the association last week, was a fitting climax to a decade of work done in this laudable cause. The report was presented by Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, called last year the best year since the founding of the society. Not only has the scope of the work widened enormously, but the public is awakening to the good being done and is responding with the financial assistance so necessary for the continuance of the association.

Two points stand out above all others in the resume of the association's growth last year. The acquisition of the staff of an emergency nurse. The home was made possible through the generosity of Miss Grace Arents, who gives the house at 223 South Cherry free of rent. While in the past nurses have been usually from 3 to 5, since the emergency nurse has been added to the staff, help can be had at any time of the day or night. The staff now numbers ten. Most remarkable is the educational work done by the association. Through its example, the School Board of the city of Richmond and the City Board of Health have been led to establish staffs of visiting nurses.

A new feature of the nursing, introduced last year by the organization of the Girls' Auxiliary, is the support and management of the Lakeside Baby Hospital, which cared for hundreds of sick children during the worst spells of last summer. The receipts of this auxiliary last year were $1,696. The hospital will be run again next summer with Miss Nora Randolph as the president.

While relying mainly upon the response of the public on Tag Day, the association derived more contributions from private sources than from Tag Day scheme. The expenses of the association were $5,709.96, and of this amount $2,629 was raised on Tag Day. $2,348 was paid by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for services and the balance contributed privately. Tag Day this year will be set for the latter part of April or the first part of May. The association is hoping for more enthusiastic response this year than ever before, now that the public is beginning to understand the work and to sympathize more fully with what is being done. For those who are not familiar with the work, it may be said that the association seeks to provide trained nurses whose duty is to visit sick persons deprived of proper care, to nurse them in their homes, to give them such attention as is imperatively needed, and to instruct members of the household in the simple rules of hygiene nursing.

The following officers were elected at the annual meeting to serve during 1912: Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, president; Mrs. Waller W. Morton, first vice-president; Mrs. Sam Cohen, second vice-president; Mrs. Melville C. Branch, third vice-president; Mrs. H. Lindsey, treasurer; Mrs. Allis Talbott, recording secretary; Mrs. George Bryan, corresponding secretary; Miss Pauline Powers, librarian.

Skating Records Broken.
Christiana, February 18.—Three new world's skating records have been made by Oscar Mathiesen, the Norwegian skater, in the international competitions yesterday he won the 100-meter event in 44.2-16 seconds, which is two-fifths of a second better than the record, made by himself in 1908. To-day Mathiesen won the 1,500 and 10,000-meter events, the former in 21 minutes 23 seconds, and the latter in 17:46 3-10 seconds.

The previous record for the 1,500-meter was made by Mathiesen in 1908, in 23 minutes 45 seconds. In the 10,000-meter record, 17 minutes 50 3-5 seconds was made by P. Oestlund in 1900.

BAPTISTS WILL CALL DR. ROPER

Report of Committee on Pastor to Be Considered Next Sunday.

Times Dispatch, Bureau, 5 Hollingsbrook Street, (Telephone 1485).
Petersburg, Va., February 18.—The general committee of the First Baptist Church appointed some weeks ago to recommend a pastor to succeed the Rev. W. C. Taylor, D. D., resigned, met in the church this afternoon at the call of the subcommittee to hear its report as to a pastor—the duty of recommending one having been assigned by the general to a subcommittee.

The subcommittee unanimously recommended that a call to the pastoral charge of the church be extended to the Rev. L. N. Roper, D. D., of Spartanburg, S. C., and the recommendation was approved by the general committee. On Saturday morning next, at the close of worship, the committee will report the name of Dr. Roper to the congregation with the recommendation that a call be extended him and the congregation will doubtless promptly approve the recommendation.

Dr. Roper is a native of South Carolina, and for twelve years past has been pastor of a large church in Spartanburg. For four years before his call to Spartanburg, he was pastor of a church in New York. Dr. Roper is about forty years of age, is married, and has six children. He is regarded as one of the ablest and strongest divines in the Southern Baptist Church.

Mr. Bernard III.
George B. Bernard, III, the pastor of the Petersburg bar, and one of our most honored and beloved citizens, is ill of pneumonia at his residence on North Adams Street. Mr. Bernard is senior counsel for the defense in the Appomattox Trust Company cases, which have been in the courts for the past year, and has long been at the head of his profession in this city and section.

Twelve Confirmed.
The Rev. A. M. Randolph, D. D., bishop of the diocese of Southern District, St. John's Church, this morning preached to a very large congregation, and administered confirmation to a class of twelve candidates presented by the rector, the Rev. Pembroke W. Reid. There were seven males and five females in the class. Bishop Randolph will visit and confer with the St. Andrew's Church, Lawrenceville, on Wednesday.

Short Change Game.
Curry Johnson, a negro, was arrested in front of the Lyric Theatre last night for attempting to practice a short change game at the ticket box, a charged for $5 bill to be given him for the equivalent of a five-cent change. He was accommodated, but presently he was returned and claimed that a mistake had been made, and that he had been given a $2 instead of a $5 bill. The dispute was referred to the police, and the Johnson by the manager of the Lyric Theatre and others, who took him to the station house, followed by a large crowd. Two other charges of similar character were preferred against him.

An Admirable Program has been arranged for the convention of the Fourth Congressional District Association to be held at Emporia on March 7, 8 and 9, and the meeting promises to be unusually interesting and educational. There has been wonderful advancement in the cause of education in this section in the last few years—not only in the system is itself, in the work of the schools, but in the erection of fine school buildings and in the increased facilities provided for the school population. In all of the counties new graded and high schools have been erected, and Petersburg has some of the finest school buildings in the State, and the fullest privileges and facilities for education are now afforded.

Some of the best known educators in the State will attend and address the convention, among whom will be State Superintendent J. D. Eggleston, Judge Walter A. Watson, Dr. J. P. McConnell, J. H. Binford and others. There are to be conferences of superintendents of the teachers of the primary, grammar and high school grades, at which topics of special interest are to be informally discussed, and from which benefit will be derived. On the whole the convention is expected to be a great success.

A Double Funeral.
The double funeral of George W. Traylor and George W. Lee, brothers-in-law, who died in the same home on Grove Avenue on Friday, within a few hours of each other, took place this afternoon from the Old Street Presbyterian Church. A large assemblage of friends of the deceased attended, and the services of the occasion were very impressive.

Pulpit Notes.
The Rev. J. A. McClure, of Henderson, N. C., who has under consideration a call to the Second Presbyterian Church in this city, preached in that church at the morning and evening services to-day to large congregations. At night the congregation of Tabernacle Church united with the Second Church. Mr. McClure's sermons were highly appreciated, and the congregation was delighted to meet him. Mr. McClure will make known his decision as to the call at an early day, and it is expected to be favorable.

Dr. R. H. Pitt, of the Religious

Herald, occupied the pulpit of the First Baptist Church, morning and evening to-day.

To-night Dr. George E. Booker, pastor of Washington Street Methodist Episcopal Church, preached on the subject of "The Knightly Graces of Patriotism and Christianity." The sermon was well appreciated to the presence, in a body, of the Pythian organization of the city.

"Square Deal" Promised.
The delegation of Virginia negro Republicans who visited Washington Saturday to protest to the President against the action of the "illy white" organization in completely ignoring the colored Republicans and excluding them from the party councils and conventions, were pleasantly received at the White House and at Taft's political headquarters, where their grievance was made known. The delegation was warmly received, and the matter would be looked into and that the negroes would be given a "square deal." The delegation was satisfied with the visit and the promise given. The negroes do not take that interest in politics that they formerly did, nor are they strong at elections. They are attending more to business and to making a living. The qualified negro vote in Petersburg this year is less than 100, and about the same light proportion exists in the counties.

WHITE WILL SEE THING THROUGH

St. Louis, Mo., February 15.—Andrew J. White, claimant in the Kimmel mystery case, now on trial in the United States District Court, renounced Mrs. Estelle Kimmel and her daughter, Mrs. Edna Bonsett, mother and sister of the missing George A. Kimmel, as his mother and sister to-day.

"These women are no longer my mother and sister," the claimant said. "I mean, of course, that they are no blood relations, but I feel no kinship for them. Our relationship is dead. It was killed by their actions toward me in this litigation."

Despite this the claimant referred to them as "mother" and "sister."

"As I sat in the courtroom and heard mother disown and discredit me," he said, "something within me seemed to snap, and I gave up hope of ever being reconciled with them. Up to that moment there had been a lingering hope, perhaps, that we might be reunited, but I do not feel that way now."

"I am against them from now on. I will see this thing through. I will fight their case in every way I can. I feel no ill affection for mother and no particular interest in Edna."

"I was engaged to the youngest girl in Michigan, and would have married her but for Edna, who was sick, and I gave my sister the money I had saved to be married on. Had it not been for that I might have been an honored man instead of an outcast, an alleged impostor."

The defendant in the case, an insurance company of New York, is marshaling its witnesses. Mrs. Mabel Finley Lardner, one of the strongest supporters of the claimant; her husband, William L. Lardner, and the Rev. Theodore Herrick, former chaplain of the Auburn Prison, where White was confined, are the witnesses who have arrived.

Mrs. Lardner said she felt no doubt that the claimant was Kimmel, the missing cashier of the Farmers' State Bank, of Arkansas City, Kan.
